

How Needs Assessment & Service Coordination (NASC) Works

If you live in New Zealand, are a New Zealand resident, and have a long-term disability, which isn't covered by ACC, you may be able to get help through the Ministry of Health Disability Support Services. The best way to find out is to get in touch with a Needs Assessment Service Coordination service, usually known as NASC.

